PROFILE

Rusty Labuschagne is a unique premier speaker on the professional circuit.

One is immediately struck by his sincerity and humility as he delivers a dramatic account of his transformational experience.

BACKGROUND

- Against police evidence, without a body and on presumptions, Rusty was convicted of drowning a fish poacher during Mugabe's rule.
- He served 10 years in Zimbabwe's prisons, including the notorious Chikurubi Maximum Security Prison, where he suffered through the Zim dollar crash, with food shortages, no running water, and people dying around him daily.

Inspiring Resilience

- Rusty Labuschagne speaks eloquently about being subjected to conditions most people would find unendurable, having to dig deep within himself to find solutions to an unbearable situation.
- His resilience, ability to face adversity, and pure grit are an unparalleled inspiration.

AUTHOR

About 70% of this book was written in my prison cell on a smuggled cell phone and emailed to myself.

All sketches I did personally after exiting prison.

I write about being subjected to conditions most people would find unbearable, having to draw on my inner resources and strengths to endure the unimaginable.
